Memory Work My Father s Care How strong and sweet my Father s care, That round about me like the air Is with me always, everywhere; He cares for me. 2. Handwork. Color the ark brown and the water blue. (Have ready sufficient pieces of crayon that the children will not have to wait for one another to do the coloring. While half the class are coloring the water, the others may be doing the ark.) LESSON DEVELOPED (Talk about a father s watchcare over his children; for example, the gate he makes to bar the little child from the dangers of the street or the stairs, and the strong grip of his hand in the crowd. Let the fact be very clear that a father will always care for his own child, whom he loves.) Would you like to hear a story of how the dear heavenly Father took care of his children once? THE LESSON STORY Long ago there lived a man whose name was Noah. He had a wife and three grown-up sons. Every time the heavenly Father looked in Noah s home he was glad, for no matter when he looked, morning or afternoon or night, Noah was always trying to do the things that pleased God. I am sure the heavenly Father looked often, for Noah s home was the only one in all the world that made him glad when he looked. In every other home he saw...
