Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Animals Friend, Vol. 3: Or, the Progress of Humanity Often as the objects and claims of the Animals Friend Society have been laid before the public, a brief outline of its nature may still, it is hoped, be admitted with pardon from the Members, for what may to them appear as needless repetition. The Association, called the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was established in 1824, which for two years rendered great service to the cause; when in consequence of debt it was obliged to stop; and the Rev. Arthur Broome, the first Hon. Secretary, resigned the office to Lewis Gompertz, Esq., who was one of the Committee: soon after which, the Society recovered, and remained actively employed for six years more, according to the plan originally laid down, viz: - 1. The circulation of suitable tracts gratuitously, or by cheap sale, particularly among persona intrusted with cattle, such as drovers, coachmen, carters, c. 2. The introduction into schools of books calculated to humanize the mind of youth. 3. Frequent appeals to the public through the press, by every mode tending to awaken more general attention to this important and in teres ling subject. 4. Delivery of periodical discourses from the pulpit. 5. The employment of inspectors in the markets and streets. 6. The prosecution of persona guilty of flagrant cruelty, and giving publicity to the same. Thus did that Society continue to act as long as the identity of its chief managers remained unchanged, the contingencies of time however depriving the Society of the principal of its most earnest and zealous Members; other gentlemen of different sentiments were introduced, and...
