Nordskog Publishing, Inc. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Died He for Me: A Physician's View of the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ, Mark A Marinella, his book presents the crux of Christianity as salvation through faith that Jesus Christ is God in the flesh, that He died on the cross and rose again to life in bodily form, and now sits at God the Fathers right hand. He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by His wounds you have been healed (1 Peter 224). None of us deserves eternal bliss, but in His overwhelming love for mankind, God came to earth in human flesh as the Godman, Jesus Christ, and gave His life freely, securing our salvation through faith. Christians celebrate Christs resurrection each spring. Without Christs necessary, yet voluntary, gruesome death during Passover week, none of us would have the hope and promise of salvation. The author has often found fellow believers uncomfortable when it comes to discussing Jesus sacrifice, especially the graphic details of the flogging or the crucifixion. The goal of this book is not to affix blame as to who killed Jesus. Indeed, we are just as responsible as anyone involved during the trials and execution, since it is also our sin that nailed Him to the cross. In fact, contemplating our own sin and its effects can make us painfully more aware of the value of the tremendous sacrifice Jesus made to restore us to His grace. As a Christian physician, the author not only marveled at the spiritual ramifications of Christs death, but also at the physical and physiological aspects. For instance, Pilates flogging of Jesus probably left Him in critical condition due to massive blood loss,...
