The Medical School, cooperating with the State Board of Health and the Minnesota Social Hygiene Commission, has taken up a share of this burden, providing 10 hospital beds and a night as well as day service of its clinics in this field. The library.--The usual growth of the medical library has been accelerated by two substantial gifts of books during the current year; the one from the library of the late Dr. Burnside Foster and the other an addition to the already large collection donated to the University by Dr. J. E. Moore. Graduate work in medicine.--Fourteen Teaching Fellows have been appointed in the several departments and 18 additional graduate students have undertaken majors or minors in medical branches. The call to war service has made special demand upon students of these groups. Social Service Department.--During the year: 825 families have been visited, with a total of 1,322 visits; 1,713 letters have been written in the interest of patients; 064 reports have been made to cooperating agencies; 362 babies have been referred to the Minneapolis Infant Welfare Society, and 15 babies to the St. Paul Baby Welfare Society; 424 pamphlets upon pre-natal care and 331 pamphlets upon infant care have been sent to mothers. The School of Embalming.---The session of the School of Embalming covered a period of eight weeks in January and February. The registration in the School suffered heavily in consequence...
