Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An intriguing love story that is based upon actual locations and people that spans the lifetime of two very different people. The story unfolds as Virginia lives with her parents on a small ranch in the foothills of Craig, Colorado. Then, tragically, she loses her mother suddenly and grows through her adolescent years into young adulthood as raised by her loving father. Everything meshes together to meld Virginia into an unusually strong and determined woman. She is driven, in college, to excel with her social life on hold as she doggedly wades through her studies, library, internships, lectures, classes until she graduates with a 4.0 BA and double MBA. Landing an executive position with a prestigious international firm. The story begins in Texas and ends in Craig, Colorado, where the winters are unusually beautiful with the passes and valleys cloaked in ice and snow such that the view exudes Crystal like qualities. Desperation was a driving force for Jimmy as he struggles mightily against all odds. His only option was the military and Jimmy traveled the world carousing and wandering his life away until he became aware that there was more to life than what he had. Midway through his military enlistment Jimmy began striving for better. Taking all the college classes he could he obtained his 2 year degree by discharge time and then continued on to finally earn his International Law degree with a 3.64 gpa. Luck was on his side as his maturity earned him a position with a very prestigious international firm in charge of their international legal affairs. It was a few years later then that Virginia was hired and eventually promoted to...
