Excerpt: . We never discover a train of contrivance to bring about an evil purpose. No anatomist ever discovered a system of organisation calculated to produce pain and disease; or, in explaining the parts of the human body, ever said, this is to irritate; this to inflame; this duct is to convey the gravel to the kidneys; this gland to secrete the humour which forms the gout: if by chance he come at a part of which he knows not the use, the most he can say is, that it is useless; no one ever suspects that it is put there to incommodate, to annoy, or to torment. The Two Cases which appear to me to have the most difficulty in them, as forming the most of the appearance of exception to the representation here given , are those of venomous animals, and of animals...
