Mr. Marshall alluded to the great delicacy of his own position in relation to the whole question. He deprecated the affair taking a party turn, and suggested the propriety of making out a list of citizens of both parties, and notifying them by private notice, to attend that evening at the Court House at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of opening a correspondence with Mr. Clay upon the subject. The list was made out, and Mr. Megowan undertook to notify the gentlemen. In case of a failure to induce Mr. Clay to discontinue his paper by an application in writing, it was at the same time...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
