Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Daughters of Darkness: In Sunny India This little volume is sent forth in the hope that the true story of some of the sufferings of India's daughters may appeal to the sympathetic hearts of the more favoured daughters of lands where Jesus, the light of the world rules and reigns. Every fact I have related has been recorded as faithfully as possible. The fancies are few and far between, but of necessity they have had to be introduced in making an harmonious whole from incidents culled from the missionary career of the late Rev. Edwin Lewis, Mrs. Lewis and myself. In the benign silvery haired Mr. Burton discoursing to the shepherds by the wayside, and instructing Lingappa by night, many of my readers, especially those in Australia and New Zealand, will soon recognize the late Rev. E. Lewis of Bellary. His experiences that I have woven into my story have had to be written from memory of the thrilling tales that he himself related to me during the few months that I had the privilege of living near him and Mrs. Lewis, in my early days at Bellary, South India.
